Volunteer Role Description:

Winslow Community Cupboard's mobile pantry, 'The Last Mile', is an additional outreach effort to assist those in surrounding communities who may not be able to get to their local food pantry. The mobile pantry offers fresh produce to neighbors who otherwise might not have access to fresh food but once per month. Drivers are needed to bring the mobile pantry to about 20 communities, and one of them might be your community. The Last Mile mobile pantry schedule can be found at this link: <https://wccpantry.com/trailer-schedule>. The time commitment for a shift could be between one and four hours, depending on your interest and availability!

There is also a need for volunteers who have an interest in grant writing and research to help raise funds for Winslow Community Cupboard. While experience would be great, it is not a requirement. If you are interested in grant writing and research, have the willingness to learn, and desire to support the growth and sustainability of this organization - you are encouraged to reach out! This volunteer opportunity time commitment is flexible and self-driven.
